TOKIO HIT BY HIGH COSTS DUE TO WAR PRICES

New Member Japanese Consulate Says No Peace Without German Defeat

Chinese in the northern provinces of China are strongly in favor of the northern provinces of the repubne.

Kumazawa asserted that he had nothing to say on the last revolution in China 'I was in Tokio for a month be fore 1 left," he said, "and there we received little news of the foreign situation. There was very little foreign news anyway, and the war news in particular was brief. "The people of Tokio are not ining the effect of the war in the rise of prices, was the declaration of Mr. Kumazawa. He said that prices had gone up since the war began and were continuing to soar. Although the Japanese are building ships as fast as their limited ship building facilities will allow, there are not enough ships for the coast trade as yet, said Mr. Kumazawa. The shortage of freight boats is one of the big problems facing the country now. Mr. Kumazawa has done considerable traveling in China and has spent much time in Canton. He visits the islands for the first time now, and says that they are one of the prettiest spots he has ever seen.

No Evidence of Conspiracy to "Corner" Rice

Food Commission Finds No Monopoly Creating High Prices

That there is no evidence at present of the existence of a conspiracy to control the price of rice, or of a movement to corner the local market, is the decision reached by the territorial food commission at a meeting this

On the other hand, it was pointed out in the meeting, considerable praise is due certain Japanese dealers who have imported rice in stock and who are continuing to sell it at prices which they know are less than what they must now pay for the commodity. These dealers, it is explained, are selling imported Japanese rice at $6.25 and $6.50 a bag, and at these prices there is no possibility for "velvet."

J. F. Child, who is familiar with the rice situation and who headed a territorial grand jury committee which investigated the high price of rice told the committee what he knew of the local rice business. He explained that the greater part of the rice used in Honolulu is imported from Japan, and very little from the coast, and that the rice raised in Hawaii is proving a comparatively small factor Local Japanese, he added, prefer the imported rice, and will pay a reason ably high price to obtain it.

The controlling factors as regards the high price of Japanese rice are, first, the price in Japan, and, second, the high freight rates from the Orien; to Honolulu. The attention of the food commission has been called to the fact that the freight rate on a recent shipment of Japanese rice, brought here by an unsubsidized Tojo Kisen Kaisha steamer, was $50 a ton, and the commission has been given to understand that the rate of at 78 So. # PROBE FORBES

What is the status of Charles R. Forbes as superintendent of sublic works and as a major on active ervice in the reserve corps? Shall his July salary be paid him? How long can a territorial official remain from his work and still receive pay? These are some of the important questions which Arthur G. Smith as acting attorney general is going to be called upon to answer between now and August 1, when the matter of Forbes' salary will again come up for consideration. Smith stated today that he will take the matter up as soon as possible, specifically to see if Forbes is to receive + winter, and possibly the North. + pay for July. It developed today that the department advised the payment ceived $250 for the month. This amount was divided between two appropriations. From June 1 to June 13 his pay came under the Watkiki survey; from June 13 to 30 from the fund for offices, employes and expenses. Where is the next month's salary coming from? This is another question yet to be decided
